

A Home-Made Gray Hair Remedy

You Can Make at Home a Better Gray Hair Remedy Than You Can Buy.

Gray streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary. You can darken it without using a dye.

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 3 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray haired person look twenty years younger. It is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp; it is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."—Advertisement.

MRS. CARTER'S TROUBLES COST HER MUCH MONEY

Had Suffered Fifteen Years; Gains Nineteen Pounds by Taking Tanlac

"Words cannot express the gratitude I really feel over the recovery of my health," said Mrs. J. B. Carter of 4138 East Sixth street, North Portland, Oregon. "I feel that I ought to tell others about Tanlac as it has made me well and happy again."

"For more than fifteen years," Mrs. Carter continued, "I have suffered with troubles not uncommon to people of my sex, and my nervous system had been almost completely wrecked. An operation is your only chance of ever getting any better," I was told, but somehow I could not make up my mind to undergo this dreadful ordeal, and the more I thought about it the more opposed to it I became. The muscles in my limbs were extremely painful and my back was so weak that I could hardly hold myself up. I suffered three or four days at a time with blind headache and was so nervous that I could not stand the ringing of the telephone or ticking of the clock in my room. I was too weak to even attempt doing any of my work, and I was barely able to get around at all. I could not get any restful sleep, and felt more tired in the morning than when I went to bed at night. Two years ago I lost my appetite entirely, and my stomach got in such a bad condition that I could not digest what little I did eat. My food would just lay in my stomach and make me feel as if I was being poisoned. For several months the muscles in my neck and shoulders were so stiff and painful that I could not look around without turning my whole body. I lost a great deal in weight and I then felt greatly blue and discouraged."

"I spent a good-sized fortune for treatments and medicines without results and lost nearly all hope. Long ago, of ever getting any better. But, Tanlac is certainly a wonderful medicine. To relieve has come at last. My appetite improved and I got so I could enjoy eating before I finished my first bottle. I have taken five bottles now, and cannot only eat just anything and everything without it hurting me. I have actually gained nineteen pounds in weight besides. I am entirely free from all pain, my back feels strong and I am now doing all my household work, including the laundry, for the family, and I don't feel a bit tired. My nerves are perfectly normal now and I sleep as peacefully as a child every night. I am feeling just as well now as I did when I was in my teens, and while I know this is a great feat, I feel sure, I am true, nevertheless. My husband and youngest son have also taken Tanlac with splendid results and they think just as I do, that there is no medicine like it."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company stores.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM PROMISES GREAT SPECTACLE

"On the High Seas," the latest scenic spectacle of Langdon McCormick, whose "Forest Fire" is still the byword of those who speak of thrilling stage effects, comes next week to the Orpheum. It ranks with "The Forest Fire" and "The Forest Fire" in its massiveness of impression. The high seas in their fury are transported to stage by wonderful electrical and mechanical effects, with such realism that one seems really on the sea. Four electricians and a small army of stage mechanics operate this sensation. The play stars Robert Holden and Bennett Johnston. "An Artistic Treat," reproducing the famous sculpture of Paris, is another bit of stage realism on the bill next week. Mabel and Dora Ford, late of the Four Fords, appear in a scintillating dance routine. Al Herman, "The Black Laugh," with his comical chatter, will furnish laughs galore. Sylvia Loyal, in her beautiful French spectacle, with hundreds of trained pigeons, Burt Garie, the famous banjoist, and his orchestra of jazz musicians, are other features.

"All for Democracy," the patriotic spectacle, comes a major attraction this week, and the Campbell Sisters, Domingue Amoros and Jennie Roberts, in "The Great Escape," the other features continue to be the talk of Oakland's theatergoers. Miss Mitchell and Harvey are to be seen in the Knickerbocker theater mystery play, "Someone in the House," a comedy drama that is said to excel such STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

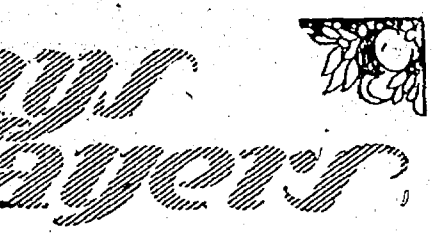

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

FULTON PLAYERS IN ATTRACTIVE COMEDY

The Fulton theater management announces an extra holiday matinee to-morrow, to be given by the complete performance of "The Little Teacher" will be given by Miss Rhea Mitchell and Paul Harvey and their associates in the Maude Fulton company.

Ibba Mitchell has stepped into the shoes of her mother, Ibba Mitchell, in something very like triumph style. Her dainty beauty, her command of the stage and her most convincing personality, all are illustrated in her portrayal of the trying role of "The Little Teacher."

Maude Pealy was a star in this play at the Columbia theater in San Francisco last September, when George M. Cohan sent this play of his to the coast, and many who have seen Miss Mitchell and Paul Harvey indicate their preference for the Maude Fulton artists in the production.

HOLIDAY SHOW AT PANTAGES CONTINUES

The Pantages will keep open house Thanksgiving day. Performances will be given continuously starting after lunch and continuing until midnight. Six well diversified acts and a two reel thriller makes up the program. For those who like frothy, light entertainment made up of girls, singing, dancing, comedians, costumes and special scenery, there is the musical comedy "Olives," and for those who like more serious and legitimate comedy there is the well played one-act comedy, "Twice a Week," with its true to life story that gives balance to an otherwise all variety show. Between these special headline features are the acts of Britt Wood, a well liked entertainer with harmonica.

After seeing the Pollis Sisters and Nat Lator, one can well appreciate why McIntyre and Beach found them in "The Ham Tree." Other acts that contribute to chasing away the blues are the American Trio with their singing, Zeno, Dunbar and Jordan, daring acrobats and Ruth Roland in "Hands Up."

AMERICAN PROGRAM OFFERS BIG STARS

When it comes to presenting marvellous double-feature programs, the American theater sets a mark to shoot at.

The two feature productions now playing are, as usual, top-notch attractions. Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese screen star, appears in his new play "The Temple of Dusk," a romantic drama which provides an excellent vehicle for the display of his remarkable talents.

The other photoplay is "Secret Strings," a stirring drama of mystery and adventure in which the beautiful and accomplished Metro star, Olive Tell, is featured. A delightful feature of each evening performance at the American is the splendid music rendered by Leon Rosebrook's symphony orchestra of fourteen soloists.

COLUMBIA SHOWS "COLUMBIA THEM IN"

George X. White's new musical comedy aggregation continues to "pack 'em in" at the Columbia theater where "Sally Carter" is tending to the majority of the comedy as Abe Cohen in "Let's Go," a sparkling musical number with plenty of singing and dancing in which the principals and a large chorus participate. The musical comedy is drawing big houses at each performance.

Thursday night has been set aside for the amateur on Friday evening the regular chorus girls' contest will be held. The regular Tuesday country store festival will be continued.

The re-opening of the Columbia brought a number of new faces and some old favorites. Laura Vane, known as Will King's prima donna, has cast

FIVE FACE VICE CRAFT INDICTMENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Federal grand jury indictments have been returned against Dr. Charles Schwartz, Dr. Schwartz and Bertha Belle Davis, Ruth Gardner and Edith Jackson, on a charge of conspiring with Abe Cohn and M. Korich to make false medical reports for the purpose of securing the release of prisoners arrested under the vice suppression orders.

The grand jury action followed close upon the disclosures made by Special War Prosecutor James E. Colston, assisted by Police Lieutenant Charles Goff and Dr. Brackett, who with the aid of a telephone and a listening post are alleged to have entrapped Schwartz and Newburg in the act of paying bribe money to Dr. Brackett for the giving of a clean bill of health to women of the underworld charged with being diseased.

The indictment returned yesterday against Dr. Schwartz and Bertha Davis of paying Dr. Brackett $25 for a favorable report; Ruth Gardner and Dr. Schwartz of paying Brackett $75; Ruth Gardner and Schwartz $75 to Brackett and Edith Jackson, Dr. Schwartz and Newburg, paying $50 to Brackett for a similar certificate; Dr. Schwartz and Newburg are charged with conspiring with Dr. Brackett to report to the United States District Court that Abe Cohn, a defendant, was not in physical condition to appear for trial and should be granted a continuance.

At the request of Special War Attorney Colston, the bail of Newburg and Schwartz was reduced from $10,000 to $5,000 each. The other defendants were held in a similar amount and will be arraigned in court today.

Geraldine Farrar will be seen at the Broadway theater for the last time today (Wednesday) in the great mount masterpiece, "The Turn of the Wheel." Tuesday's program complete also includes Frank Keenan, the virile actor in "A Long Chance," and a comedy.

Tomorrow, four stars will be included on a program that has few equals in excellence. Marguerite Clark will return in her most lovable screen character, "The Girl in the Red Velvet Gown," and Harriet Rawlinson will be seen in a drama typical of his style, "Smashing Through."

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A Small Bottle of 'Danderine' Keeps Hair Thick, Strong, Beautiful

Girls! Try This! Doubles Beauty of Your Hair in a Few Moments

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will be itchy but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—growing all over the scalp.

No matter how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Oakland Will Offer Thanks Entire City Will Observe Holiday

For the first time since 1914, that festive year when the anarchists of auto-race set the world afire, Mr. and Mrs. Oakland and all the little Oakland, will tomorrow greet the dawn of Thanksgiving Day with the old-time fervid thanksgiving spirit and will partake of the "turkey and fixins" with the old-time vigorous Thanksgiving appetite. For the war is over and the world is at peace—a peace which promises to be lasting and just. And so the great big Oakland family has cause for thankfulness tomorrow, along with the other big city families of the world.

There will be vacant chairs at the Oakland family's table tomorrow and vacant places in the gathering around the fireside, for the gold stars are numerous and the absentees are many in the groups which make up Oakland's great composite municipal family. But the loss of those who have given their lives in the cause of world liberty will be tempered to the living by the knowledge that they have not died in vain, and the absence of these other sons will be made more bearable by the thought that they will soon be home again. To those who have not such thoughts to comfort and sustain them on the morrow there remains the sweet solace of hallowed memories.

REMARKABLE PHOSPHATE MAKES THIN PEOPLE FAT

Something over sixty years ago, Pezou, a French scientist, discovered a form of organic phosphate which when taken into the human system it was quickly converted into nerve tissue. Soon after its discovery Dr. Albert Robit (Academy of Medicine, Paris) began a scientific investigation of the use of this organic phosphate and its effect upon the human system with results that amazed the scientific and medical world.

Today it is an admitted fact that in the treatment of those ailments directly or indirectly due to depleted nervous vitality, such as neurasthenia, nervous weakness, premature old age, insomnia, lack of energy, fatigue, nervous debility, indigestion, etc., it is unequalled. Physicians and hospitals everywhere now recognize its merits by its use in ever-increasing quantities and it is therefore a matter of more than ordinary interest to all such sufferers to learn that this organic nerve building phosphate is now obtainable from druggists everywhere in the form of 3-grain tablets of pure bitro-phosphate, at a cost so low as to be within the reach of everyone.

One or two of these tablets should be taken with each meal and results in many instances are little short of marvelous. Dull eyes become bright, sleep is restored to the sleepless, the nerves regain their strength, thin people put on flesh and the whole system becomes charged with that strength, vitality and energy which makes life so truly worth while.

As there are a great variety of so-called phosphates, care should be exercised in the selection of the genuine Bitro-Phosphate, which is composed wholly of the original nerve-building substance as discovered by Pezou. It is sold by The Owl Drug Co. and all good druggists everywhere.

One caution—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, owing to its remarkable flesh growing properties it should not be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.—Advertisement.

CORDS BRUISED, BUT SURVIVES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Robert Cords is carrying today the imprint on his person of the second chapter of his matrimonial history that has been physically inscribed. The historian of this chapter is Attorney Charles F. Hanlon, who used his fist after a few words were exchanged when the men met in the cafe of the Palace Hotel last night. Cords, who is considerably younger than Hanlon, did not follow suit. He contends that had it not been for the interference of the attorney that the trouble between himself and Mrs. Cords would have been adjusted as the result of an agreement they had reached.

Holiday to See Social Renaissance

While other cities are still under the ban of the flu and in obedience to regulations are unable to observe Thanksgiving as under ordinary circumstances, the city of Berkeley, under the auspices of the War Camp Community service, there will be "open house" on the day after the evening of the service will be guests in the homes of the cities east of the bay. At the Berkeley Legion, where the Red Cross courses in First Aid and Elementary Hygiene.

Miss Eva Patrick Reynolds, British representative of the Legion, will tell something of the life of the people of England and especially of her home, Brighton, at the time the people were undergoing the terror of air raids.

At the time the epidemic broke out, 150 women, who had completed their course, were ready to volunteer and did volunteer for nursing service. Berkeley has now not less than 500 members, and the organization may become international.

At the meeting tonight the constitution, which has recently been revised, according to the suggestion of Father Cabanel, chaplain of the French Blue Devils, will be read and probably adopted.

Father Cabanel has become intensely interested in the movement and will represent the organization in France, whether he will soon carry the message of the valuable work performed by these trained women of America.

Father Cabanel is to America a picturesque figure to France a tragic one. He has been the chaplain of the famous French Blue Devils, buried 30,000 of France's bravest upon the fields of Flanders. He has been given the Cross of the Legion of Honor, and has been cited six times for bravery under fire.

EBELL BULLETIN. Ebells' December bulletin made its appearance early this morning, bedecked with flags and filled to the brim with programs that savor of "peace on earth."

The opening meeting will be held on Tuesday, December 3, when after the usual meeting board meeting, the general business meeting at 2 p. m., the guests will be admitted without cards to hear Miss Martha A. Chickering on "Building a New America."

On Tuesday, December 10, Ebells will celebrate its forty-second birthday with a breakfast. This will be strictly a family party, and very sorry are the friends of Ebells who are, for example, Frederick S. Samuels' little Russian play, "The Stupidest Princess," will be staged by Miss Carolyn Roberts, and it promises to be a treat for Mrs. Samuels is one of the clever amateur playwrights of California.

Adelphi Club, Mrs. Mildred Hubbard, will hold a union meeting on the first Thursday in December.

This is the first meeting since the epidemic, and because of the epidemic, it has not been decided whether or not the meeting will be held in the handsome clubhouse or in some other place, that will be announced later. When the facilities of the clubhouse are threatened to overtax, Alameda's phalanx Club turned itself into a hospital where dozens of patients were cared for daily by the women of Alameda.

It has been such a short time since the last patient was sent home that the executive board of the room should be given another thorough disinfecting before any social meetings are held therein. This can be done before December 5, the meeting will be held there.

At this big union meeting, Professor W. A. Morris, of the English History Department of the University of California, will speak.

Linen shower for France headquarters, 321 Alameda, Lakeside 283. Red Cross motor corps headquarters, Lakeside 161.

In none of its enterprises has the Oakland Red Cross encountered better cooperation from various war-winning agencies than it has in the present drive for linen for the hospitals of France, asserts Miss Frances Redman, chairman of the drive.

Mrs. M. A. Anderson, head of the Woman's Army of the Oakland women's committee of the State Council of Defense, has been organized, ordered to make a house to house canvass for whatever linen the housewife can spare.

In view of the fact that the members of this army have given almost every week of their time for the past six weeks to the campaign against the epidemic, and in consequence are tired, it is considered that the Red Cross as a generous and patriotic offer.

The colonels who will call out their forces for this "war" for the war work are Mrs. C. B. Wilson, Mrs. Samuel Brock, Mrs. Newton A. Koser, Mrs. Charles D. Haines and Mrs. C. R. Armstrong.

Miss Ethel Moore, of the Council of Defense, and Mrs. Sue Fratts, head of the war activities of the public schools, have volunteered to help.

Housewives are asked to spare whatever they can from their own supply of linen that the American and French boys who are not yet able to take their own homes, but who are dependent upon the hospitals of France for every comfort, may not suffer more than necessary. The linen will be sent over immediately.

Napkins, sheets, handkerchiefs, hand towels and bath towels—whatever kind or quality that is used in the home, are needed.

Boxes have been placed at Red Cross headquarters and at the Liberty Hat where linen can be placed, or the Motor Corps will collect it if notified.

The drive will continue one week and in that time 16,582 pieces of linen must be collected if Oakland is going to do the usual thing, and go over the top.

Legion of Women Will Hold Session

By GEORGIA G. BORDWELL. This evening at 7:30, in the Blue Room of the St. Francis Hotel, there will be a meeting of the American Woman's Legion, at which Mrs. Carrie E. Church, one of the members of the Berkeley Chapter, will tell of her recent experience as a nurse in the pneumonia ward of the hospital at Mare Island where she put in twenty-nine days' service.

Miss Eva Patrick Reynolds, British representative of the Legion, will tell something of the life of the people of England and especially of her home, Brighton, at the time the people were undergoing the terror of air raids.

This Legion was first organized in Berkeley, and comprises only such women as have taken the Red Cross courses in First Aid and Elementary Hygiene.

Miss Kimball Easton, president of the University Mothers' Club, is head of the Berkeley Legion; Miss Byrd Morse is National organizer and will preside at the meeting tonight.

At the time the epidemic broke out, 150 women, who had completed their course, were ready to volunteer and did volunteer for nursing service. Berkeley has now not less than 500 members, and the organization may become international.

At the meeting tonight the constitution, which has recently been revised, according to the suggestion of Father Cabanel, chaplain of the French Blue Devils, will be read and probably adopted.

Father Cabanel has become intensely interested in the movement and will represent the organization in France, whether he will soon carry the message of the valuable work performed by these trained women of America.

Father Cabanel is to America a picturesque figure to France a tragic one. He has been the chaplain of the famous French Blue Devils, buried 30,000 of France's bravest upon the fields of Flanders. He has been given the Cross of the Legion of Honor, and has been cited six times for bravery under fire.

EBELL BULLETIN. Ebells' December bulletin made its appearance early this morning, bedecked with flags and filled to the brim with programs that savor of "peace on earth."

The opening meeting will be held on Tuesday, December 3, when after the usual meeting board meeting, the general business meeting at 2 p. m., the guests will be admitted without cards to hear Miss Martha A. Chickering on "Building a New America."

On Tuesday, December 10, Ebells will celebrate its forty-second birthday with a breakfast. This will be strictly a family party, and very sorry are the friends of Ebells who are, for example, Frederick S. Samuels' little Russian play, "The Stupidest Princess," will be staged by Miss Carolyn Roberts, and it promises to be a treat for Mrs. Samuels is one of the clever amateur playwrights of California.

Adelphi Club, Mrs. Mildred Hubbard, will hold a union meeting on the first Thursday in December.

This is the first meeting since the epidemic, and because of the epidemic, it has not been decided whether or not the meeting will be held in the handsome clubhouse or in some other place, that will be announced later. When the facilities of the clubhouse are threatened to overtax, Alameda's phalanx Club turned itself into a hospital where dozens of patients were cared for daily by the women of Alameda.

It has been such a short time since the last patient was sent home that the executive board of the room should be given another thorough disinfecting before any social meetings are held therein. This can be done before December 5, the meeting will be held there.

At this big union meeting, Professor W. A. Morris, of the English History Department of the University of California, will speak.

Linen shower for France headquarters, 321 Alameda, Lakeside 283. Red Cross motor corps headquarters, Lakeside 161.

In none of its enterprises has the Oakland Red Cross encountered better cooperation from various war-winning agencies than it has in the present drive for linen for the hospitals of France, asserts Miss Frances Redman, chairman of the drive.

Mrs. M. A. Anderson, head of the Woman's Army of the Oakland women's committee of the State Council of Defense, has been organized, ordered to make a house to house canvass for whatever linen the housewife can spare.

In view of the fact that the members of this army have given almost every week of their time for the past six weeks to the campaign against the epidemic, and in consequence are tired, it is considered that the Red Cross as a generous and patriotic offer.

The colonels who will call out their forces for this "war" for the war work are Mrs. C. B. Wilson, Mrs. Samuel Brock, Mrs. Newton A. Koser, Mrs. Charles D. Haines and Mrs. C. R. Armstrong.

Miss Ethel Moore, of the Council of Defense, and Mrs. Sue Fratts, head of the war activities of the public schools, have volunteered to help.

Housewives are asked to spare whatever they can from their own supply of linen that the American and French boys who are not yet able to take their own homes, but who are dependent upon the hospitals of France for every comfort, may not suffer more than necessary. The linen will be sent over immediately.

Napkins, sheets, handkerchiefs, hand towels and bath towels—whatever kind or quality that is used in the home, are needed.

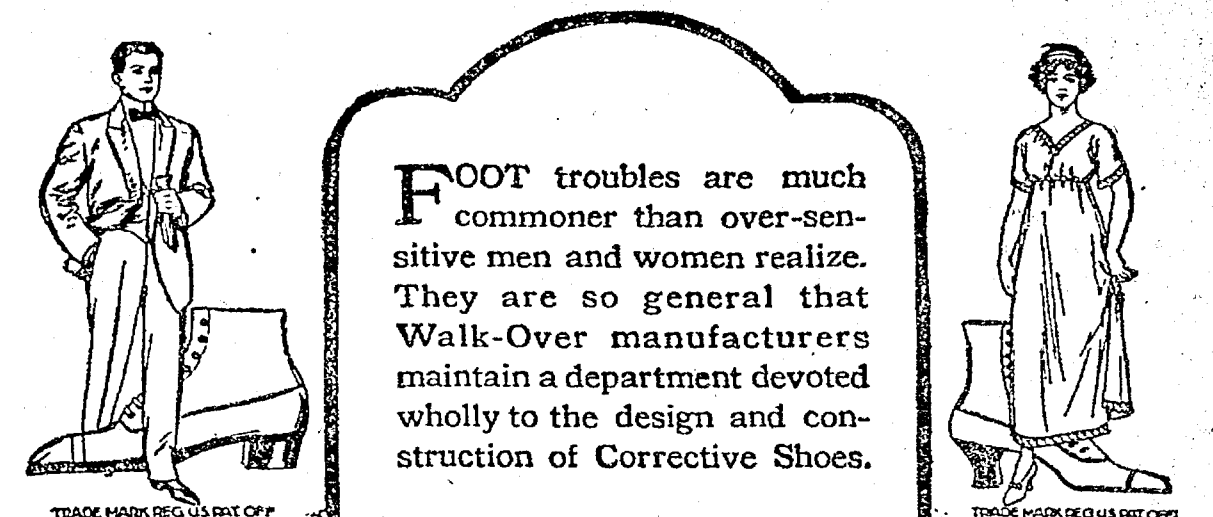

Boxes have been placed at Red Cross headquarters and at the Liberty Hat where linen can be placed, or the Motor Corps will collect it if notified.

The drive will continue one week and in that time 16,582 pieces of linen must be collected if Oakland is going to do the usual thing, and go over the top.

Special Service in Richmond Planned. RICHMOND, Nov. 27.—Union Thanksgiving services will be held tomorrow at 10:30 in the Wesley Methodist church. Rev. H. K. Sanborn, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach the sermon. Special music will be provided by the Wesley choir.

Fish Prices. The following are the maximum retail prices for these varieties of fish on November 27 in San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley. Dealers are free to sell at lower prices, but should not charge more. Purchasers who are overcharged are invited to make complaint in writing to the State Market Director. Prices are not quoted on steamer fish, due to the small catch.

TRIBUNE BUREAU
201 SHATTUCK AVE.
BERKELEY, Nov. 27. — Support of the plan to purchase a block of land fronting the city hall to be dedicated as a Victory Square as a memorial to the boys from Berkeley who fell in battle overseas, was given last night at a meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

The plan for acquiring the property, which is bounded by Center and Milvia streets, Alston way and Grove street, was advanced this week by Mayor Samuel C. Irving at a meeting held by Berkeley teachers. Director H. S. Howard introduced a resolution on the Chamber of Commerce meeting last evening which resulted in an unanimous vote of that organization to support the movement for the purchase of the land.

Attention was also drawn up asking that some of the big howitzers captured from the Germans and a large battle tank used by Americans be given to Berkeley to be placed in the park as souvenirs.

Strike Vote Cast by Rail Key Men

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—A vote favoring a strike of railway telegraphers on all the roads in the United States and Canada was cast in Chicago by the general chairman and secretaries of the fifty-one Order of Railroad Telegraphers' divisions of the western and middle western states. Similar meetings were held in Boston, Baltimore and Atlanta.

The Chicago meeting was representative of 45,000 government employees, who are dissatisfied with the supplement to general order No. 27 affecting wages and working conditions. It was voted to reject all these and telegrams were sent to the meetings in other cities asking similar action.

A revision of the wage awards is the first demand of the wiremen, who ask a minimum of sixty cents an hour in place of the forty-eight cent minimum. Changes in the working conditions also are sought.

Thanksgiving means more to the American people this year than any previous one perhaps since the natal day was first observed by our forefathers in the bleak days of the birth of our republic.

Dinners and family reunions inasmuch as possible will be the order of the day, and the desire of many a household will be to arrange for this annual feast at some hotel or cafe where especial attention has been given to this important affair.

The following announcements of Thanksgiving menus have been gathered by a TRIBUNE representative to supply that need. Look them over and you will note the uselessness in attempting to plan this meal at home when so many worthy and reasonably priced Thanksgiving Dinners are offered from which to select.

The leading hotels and restaurants will hold a Thanksgiving Dance beginning at 9 P. M. This feature should attract throngs of San Francisco people to Oakland, as dancing is not permitted in San Francisco before December 1.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1918.

STATE EXPENSES.

Governor Stephens is to be commended for his action in appointing a commission to make a survey of the various departments, bureaus and commissions of the State government with a view to bringing about economy in State expenditures. Happily the members of this commission do not draw salaries and their positions will be vacated as soon as the work is completed.

The Governor has adopted a course which holds bright promise of giving general satisfaction. There has been much criticism of some of the commissions on the ground that having outlived their usefulness, if they ever had any, they have become an unnecessary expense to the people. It has also been contended that some of the commissions have succeeded so well in accomplishing the purposes for which they were created that their duties are so lightened as to call for amalgamation with other commissions.

Doubtless much of the criticism has been thoughtless, not a little of it for partisan purposes. But that there should be and can be substantial reduction in the expenses of government is a question on which there is pretty general agreement. All the candidates in the recent gubernatorial campaign pledged themselves to reduce expenditures if elected. Governor Stephens among them.

In creating a commission of investigation the Governor is preparing to carry out his pre-election promise. The people will now hope that the commission will work thoroughly and quickly and that the Governor will not hesitate to adopt any recommendations for lowering the cost of government which it may make. The legislature assembles in January and this question should be settled then and settled in accordance with the public welfare.

CHRISTMAS IS NEAR.

Less than a month remains before Christmas. What about your Christmas shopping?

Every year at this season THE TRIBUNE reminds its readers of the benefits of shopping early and avoiding the congestion and rush of the last few days before Christmas. Each year it seems that the number heeding the advice increases somewhat. But there are each Christmas time a large body of citizens who do not heed. Some of these cannot purchase their Christmas packages earlier than they do for financial or other reasons, and some of them are scornfully obstinate.

But there is a much larger body of citizens who, in the glad Christmas time at least, experience a friendly feeling for the "other fellow." They think of the overworked employees of the shops and try to arrange their purchases so as not unduly to increase the burdens of the employees in the final days of the shopping period. They are mindful of the fact that those who serve the public in the shops might enjoy Christmas as also if they were not exhausted in body and spirit on Christmas eve. Then they think of the expressman, the delivery wagon drivers, the mail carrier. They think of the friends in other cities, and know that unless the Christmas gifts for out-of-town friends and relatives are posted several days in advance they may not be delivered in time to be opened on Christmas morning.

It is to these people of the kindly thought the reminder that only a month remains for the Christmas shopping is addressed. Make your purchases early. Some of the stores will hold them for later delivery. Purchases elsewhere can be taken home and put away until it is desired to open them. There is every indication that this will be a busy holiday season. Early shopping will bring with it the advantage of a large selection of goods.

But in any event, remember the man and woman whose duty it is to serve the public. Help distribute their burdens over the next four weeks.

A MEMORIAL PARK.

Mayor Irving of Berkeley has made to the city over which he officially presides a happy suggestion of a memorial to the fallen soldiers and to the soldiers who will shortly return home from the battlefield to enjoy the future years. He would have the city purchase a public park and dedicate it to the men who have fought for their country.

A public park is always very close and dear to the people of a city. It is a place of recreation and amusement, of health-giving exercise in the pure, open air. It is a place where children go.

"Victory Park" in Berkeley would always be a reminder to the citizens of that city, young and old, that there was a war in which American soldiers fought in defense of the right of the people to enjoy their parks, their playgrounds, the fruits of their labor and the freedom of their conscience. The thoughts of thousands would revert daily to the men who died in beating back the despoiler of beautiful things. Future generations would inherit the feeling of gratitude. A more appropriate means of commemorating the victory of 1918 could not be devised.

THANKSGIVING.

Serious meditation will convince Americans that they have much to be thankful for, that they are justified in entering into the spirit of Thanksgiving Day with hearts full of gratitude for unparalleled blessings bestowed during the last twelvemonth. There is much to rejoice over, yet much to provoke solemnity and serious reflection.

The custom of annual thanksgiving is old in civilized countries. In some lands, at different times, it has been of the nature of a harvest festival, marked by feasting, singing and general holiday making. But nearly always there has been an hour devoted to recognition of a power higher than that of man for the fullness of the harvest.

At this time the people of the United States may indeed be thankful for a bounteous earth. Never before has the land given so liberally of sustenance for the human body. The food crops, in the aggregate, for 1918 break all records. The meat production has never been equaled before. We are thankful that in addition to providing ample provisions for the people of America there has been a large surplus for the hungry and starving of other continents. Food from this country has saved the lives of millions in the stricken lands of Europe. From our storehouses will go the precious grain and meat and dairy products that will alleviate suffering across the seas this winter.

But aside from the riches of the land, we owe thanksgiving for the spiritual and moral wealth of America. Through this a great democracy has proved efficient in its defense against predatory force. A powerful enemy has been overcome and made to plead for peace and a chance for regeneration. American industry, courage, genius of organization and faith in the God of right has stopped a long reign of criminal ambition directing wanton slaughter.

And greatest of all things, right has been vindicated as the mightiest of all forces of world order. It has been demonstrated that falsehood is unbelievable. All the hideous formulas of the Hunnish masters of kultur have been unmasked and lie naked, amid the other ruins of an evil enterprise. This is an imperishable reward of allegiance to the law of right and justice.

So it is that tomorrow the people of America have stronger reasons than ever known by any people for rendering thanks. An hour of grateful retrospection may also be an hour of new resolution. It is a fitting time to renew the pledge to be worthy of all the blessings we have received and of all the things we have achieved. In the spirit of service this may be.

NAVAL INCREASES.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels has revised his estimate of navy expenditures for the fiscal year of 1919-20 in such a manner as to reduce the amount thought necessary before the signing of the armistice by about one-half. Instead of the earlier estimate of $2,441,900,000 the navy expects to require about $1,200,000,000. A large portion of this sum will be necessary for pay, clothing and provisioning of the navy personnel.

There were at the signing of the armistice close to 500,000 men under the naval administration. This number can almost immediately be reduced to about 350,000. But it will be necessary to know the outcome of the peace conference before any further reduction may be safely made. However, it may be that by the beginning of the next fiscal year, July 1, the personnel force of the navy may be further demobilized.

Among the other large items of the revised appropriation estimate are sums for carrying on the three-year building program authorized in 1915. Work on this greater navy project was delayed on account of the war, the department holding that it was necessary to devote all energies and facilities to the building of destroyers and submarine chasers. But it is to be revived, under specific instruction from Congress. Another item which Mr. Daniels submits is $200,000,000 as one-third of the cost of another three-year building program. This latter is to include superdreadnaught battleships, battle cruisers, destroyers and other craft.

The great majority of the people, who believe more than ever that preparedness for defense is the best safeguard of peace, will desire that Congress approve the new building without delay. The proposed additions will not be all that is desired in the way of naval defenses, but it will enable us to assume creditably any role that may be assigned in connection with the league of nations and at the same time make us ready to face any new alignment of world powers. This latter is always a danger which must be reckoned with, and the Pacific frontiers of the United States must be defended as well as the Atlantic.

NOTES and COMMENT

As it appears to require a considerable spell of agitating and discussion to get public improvements started, it is not too early to begin about the Webster street bridge. The ban is off and the sooner the new structure is begun the better it will be for the many interests concerned.

From numerous country exchanges we learn that there is no shortage of turkeys. In fact, because of a general idea that the price is above many purses that formerly were equal to it, there may be an overplus. This news seems to be exclusive to country papers.

Our soldiers who have been detailed for service in Siberia are entitled to such satisfaction as they may obtain from reading that the principal war is over and the victorious forces on their way home. It is probable that there is not much to make war in Siberia poetic.

There has been much discussion of the question whether it is incumbent on this country to feed the nations that were for four years trying to undo us. The ground might be taken at least that they shall have nothing at our hands till they quit fighting among themselves.

Germany bids fair to split up till gathering in the indemnity that is going to be levied will be a regular tax collector's job. But all the territory that comprised the empire on its initiation of the war can be held. The people of every component part were enthusiastic enough over the Kaiser's enterprise at the outset and even over such incidents as the sinking of the Lusitania.

"Woman sees meter with a blue-green tail." If it were a man who had such a woman there would be room for comment, but being a woman it will have to be passed up without footnotes.

Peru and Chile are daring each other to knock chip from shoulder. When they get at it they are wicked fighters, as may be remembered from their last scrap, some thirty years ago.

It is suspected that the mention of General Pershing for President is the work of extra, zealous friends. The general is strictly attending to his duty over there and has hitherto shown such a level sense of the fitness of things that it is hardly conceivable that he even knows of this exploiting of his name.

Any fear that too many soldiers are being sent home, considering the threatening condition in European countries, is not well grounded. The forces that the English and French are still able to muster will be equal to any emergency, considering that the ships and so many of the guns of the enemy have been sequestered.

Fun is fun, but the defacing of colored premises, especially of memorials, comes in another category. The latest instance at the State University certainly should be run down, for the vindication of the decent and orderly who may be concerned.

When we read of mince pies at 50 cents apiece there are sure to be some of us who hark back to other times.

Many will remember the derisive references that once were made to a billion dollar congress. The idea was that any government that involved an expenditure of such a sum was wickedly extravagant. How different it has become may be realized from the statement that a six billion dollar tax levy for 1919 and a four billion levy for 1920 is favored. But, of course, there is the war to clean up.

The governor's committee, appointed to coordinate the state civil missions, which have been created without much reference to how they overlapped and overlapped, has a great chance. The state is groaning under its commission burden.

SHIPS FOR THE AMERICAS.

Approximately one-third of the ships built and building by the United States Shipping Board will be utilized in trade between the two Americas.
Of the 25,000,000-ton ship program, the shipping board plans to turn 8,000,000 tons into Latin-American trade channels.
Knowledge of shipping board plans to take care of traffic between the two continents comes closely on the heels of an announcement by the international high commission that "commercial advance agents" will be sent to South America as the connecting link for business.
On the day hostilities were ended something like 900,000 tons of shipping were released to commercial work between the two Americas. They had been used in transporting munitions materials.

BOASTFUL LOOTERS.

The boast of the German government some time ago that it had on exhibition in Berlin a valuable collection of Italian paintings and sculpture captured by the Teutonic armies during their invasion of northern Italy last year has afforded great amusement to the Italians. The fact is that very few indeed of Italy's real treasures have been lost by falling into German hands, although the invaded region was full of priceless art objects. For, in spite of the horror and panic attendant upon that invasion, the Italian people carried out a carefully organized system of salvage of their treasures.

When it was certain that the Italian line was wavering, Arduino Colasanto, placed by the Minister of Public Instruction in charge of the work of safeguarding the country's art treasures, divided the threatened region into three zones. The supreme command of the army put trucks, necessary timber and men at his disposal. There was no time for deliberation. Colasanto's instructions were to keep in contact with the army and remove art objects only when it became evident that a town was about to be taken by the Huns. He was, therefore, obliged to keep watch of a front 400 miles long, and to rush his trucks at a moment's notice to a yielding point.

The plan worked to perfection. It has been reported, Citizens of threatened towns wrapped their art treasures ready for transportation and frequently these would be departing on Colasanto's trucks from one side of a town at the very moment that the Austrians would be entering from the other. Of course a few valuable paintings were missed, occasionally some were too large for the trucks, others would not be made ready for departure in time, the owners feeling too secure from invasion and unwilling to risk harm to their treasures. Most of them, however, were saved. The entire collection in the Museum of Padua, for example, was removed.

As Venice was considered to be in great danger all the collections still remaining in her museums were removed. The Colosseum statue proved so heavy that before it could be lifted from its foundations and carried to safety the crowd that had assembled to watch the proceedings was called upon to help and, seizing the ropes, even the children pulled with a will. Soldiers in many bombarded towns did their utmost to save the beautiful old frescoes on the ruined walls.

With the exception of a small part of the Museum of Udine, the only art objects believed to have been captured by the Huns were a triptic attributed to Titian but whose genuineness has never been proven, a work by Pordenone and a small picture of the school of Bellini.—Christian Science Monitor.

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

What "Hammer Toe" Is and How It May Be Cured.

BY DR. LEONARD K. HIRSHBERG
A. B., M. A., M. D.
(Johns Hopkins University.)

A certain autocrat once declared that if he had before him the inventor of the leather shoe he would without compunction chop off his head. If that autocrat did not have corns and bunions, he perhaps had a hammer toe.

Hammer toe is a deformity commonly of the second toe and is perceptible as a band of flexion of the joint. The prominence of the knuckle is formed by the toe joint, which frequently becomes crowned with a corn from friction of the leather shoe.

The under side of the forepart of such toes also acquire a callous spot from the friction generated between the toe and the sole of the shoe.

The common origin of the hammer toes is tight, short, ill-fitting shoes or shoes of odd design. This deformity, while frequently associated with the disability of a flat front arch or bunions is not necessarily so; indeed, it is generally independent of them and much more common.

The victim of hammer toes usually seeks relief from "sore feet" or corns. Only rarely does he visit a surgeon to ask relief from a "hump-back" toe.

Unhappily, toes thus deformed are not easily restored to their pristine shape and beauty. The surgeon's interference is about the only hope of a correction of such a deformity.

An operation usually gives quick relief. A wedge-shaped piece of bone is removed from the top of the affected toe, just behind the joint most involved. A transverse incision is made in the skin over this joint. Then an egg-shaped bit of flesh, enough to include the corn that crowns the joint, is taken away. The surgeon now "plugs" the bone on both sides of the joint just as you do a watermelon. That is to say, he extracts a wedge of bone with the base upward from the toe bones.

The cord or tendon under the toe, which pulls or flexes it, is also cut.

The toe can now at least be straightened and the skin over it neatly stitched together.

Adhesive plaster is used to hold the little splints in place under the toe. This does not interfere with getting about, after the shoe is on.

After three weeks the splint is discarded and the victim tries to learn more or less control of the toes upon which the operation was performed.

Exercises, toe-dancing and movements performed to strengthen the small muscles of the forepart of the foot help to remedy a fall in the anterior arch.

Grasping motion with the toes, bending, straightening, spreading the toes, lifting and tiptoe movements usually suffice to improve most of these deformities.

BOLD THUGS ROB STORE; BEAT OWNER

A gas-pipe robbery that smacked of the work of the infamous Seamen and Dabner gang that haunted the bay districts years ago was perpetrated at 9 o'clock this morning in the little grocery store conducted by T. B. Vickers at Tenth and Jefferson streets.

Two masked thugs entered the store and finding Vickers with his back turned to the entrance without more ado slugged him on the head, knocking him unconscious. Immediately they proceeded to rifle the till but were interrupted by their pillaging by the entrance of W. J. Lewellyn of 1006 Jefferson street. Lewellyn sensed something was wrong and started to back out of the store.

One of the thugs ordered him to halt. Lewellyn obeyed and the pair ran from the store up Jefferson street. Lewellyn took up the pursuit tracking them to the Clayton Hotel at Tenth and Clay streets. Lewellyn swears that he saw the men enter the hotel. The clerk, however, denies seeing the men and says no guests answering to their description are registered at the hotel.

Lewellyn returned to the store and had Vickers removed to the emergency hospital. When the stricken man had recovered sufficiently to make a statement, he gave an accurate description of the two thugs and informed the police that he had seen men of their description hanging around during the last few days.

The thugs, according to Vickers, have visited his store on previous occasions under pretense of seeking a telephone.

Crippled Woman Steals Away to Die

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27.—Crippled and penniless, Miss M. A. Hamerick, an unfortunate woman of 55, lay down in a field to die yesterday after wandering for hours on crutches about the streets in the south part of the city. Deputy Sheriff Bell found her in a pitiful plight near Main street and Home-ward avenue.

Miss Hamerick had been living with a Mrs. Corey at 423 West Forty-second street. Mrs. Corey is blind and Miss Hamerick did her housework in return for room and board. Recently Miss Hamerick's rheumatism made her helpless.

Feeling that she was but a drag upon her friend and that she had nothing to live for she left Mrs. Corey's house without warning. Last night she was taken back at Mrs. Corey's request.

COUNTERFEIT EXPERT GETS YEAR IN JAIL

One year in the Alameda county jail and a fine of $10 was the sentence imposed on Charles L. Baender, residing at 822 Clay street, Oakland, and a manufacturer of vacuum cleaners, at 822 Twentieth street. Judgment was imposed by Federal Judge M. Dooling after a plea of guilty by Baender following his arrest January 14 by Inspector Powers, accompanied by Secret Service Operative Charles Cayling, on a charge of making dies for counterfeit $5 gold pieces.

Baender, who is on parole from San Quentin penitentiary from a 3-year sentence for grand larceny in Alameda county, was designated by Operative Cayling as the cleverest counterfeit coin dykemakers that had come to the attention of the local treasury authorities since 1906. When his shop was raided 65 dies were found in the genuine ones which bore evidence of having been used to make the dies.

CLERK SUPPLIES CLEW.

The clerk of the Union Oil company's station near Baender's shop supplied the first information when he notified the Oakland inspectors that Baender had given him counterfeit gold pieces on three separate occasions. The money, when examined by the chief of the secret service department, Harry M. Moffitt, were found to be mutilated and cracked. An investigation resulted in Baender's arrest with the dies on his work bench still hot from their mold.

In entering a plea of guilty Baender made a masterly argument for clemency and probable cause, displaying technicality to stay judgment through the introduction of writs of error and bill of exceptions. He is said to be the brother of a prominent corporation attorney.

Baender was first arrested in Oakland on a charge of grand larceny, was convicted and sentenced to three years in San Quentin by Judge Ogden on February 7, 1917. He was paroled in September of the same year and rearrested three months later on a charge of robbery. He was again sentenced to San Quentin on February 7, 1917. He was again arrested on October 3, charged with murder and burglary as in the case of Lewis and Alderson in the series of automobile thefts that terrorized the city, but was released on account of insufficient evidence.

NO CHANGES IN SHIPYARD STRIKE

There is no change today in the strike situation at the Alameda plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation. At a meeting of the Boilermakers' union last night it was voted to make no overtures to the officials of either the shipbuilding plant or the shipping board. The Bethlehem management has announced that it has no controversy with the strikers and that the entire matter is one for conference with H. R. Bretherton, chairman of the United States Labor Adjustment Board.

Bretherton refuses to treat with the men on the grounds that the strikers in dispute are of a trivial character and could have been settled with the shipyard management without recourse to a walkout.

E. B. Wolff, secretary of the Boilermakers' Union, states that the men will remain out until the Bethlehem officials sign an agreement to remedy all of the matters in dispute. He states that no further attempt will be made to confer with Bretherton or the shipyard management. Tonight, at the regular weekly meeting of the union, plans will be made, according to Wolff, to continue the strike indefinitely.

This noon a second free-or-retry Mooney meeting was held in the vicinity of the Moore Shipbuilding plant under the auspices of the Boilermakers' Union. The speakers were Mrs. Rena Mooney, wife of the condemned man, and John Weller, of the local union. At the same meeting at which the shipyard strike vote was taken, it was also voted to act with the other unions of the country in the Mooney movement, should a strike eventuate. In that event the boilmakers employed in the other Eastbay shipyards will strike on December 2.

DIVERS PROBE FOR CAUSE OF ACCIDENT

As an aftermath of the accident at the Barnes-Thibbets shipyard on the estuary yesterday afternoon, in which one man was killed and a score of persons narrowly escaped death or injury, divers are today examining the submarine mechanism of the shipways for the purpose of determining how badly it was damaged when the crane, suddenly loosened by the snapping of a chain cable, slid back into the stream, carrying with it the steamer Mona.

Officials of the plant stated today that it would probably be two weeks before the shipways were again in operation. The strain upon the crane and runway as the 3400-ton ship shot back into the estuary was so excessive that it twisted their mechanism very appreciably, according to the management.

To repair the upper structure is not a difficult matter, but to get at and remedy the damage to the under-water portion requires the services of an expert diver, who is likewise an expert mechanic.

LINK CRYSTALIZED.

The crystallizing of a link in one of the massive chains which held the Mona in position as she was drawn from the water on the shipways on which she was cradled. When the link snapped along the marine runway, carrying death to Frank Carter, a workman, and endangering the lives of a score of other persons, including six girls. The escape of the young women was providential, as none of them could swim and all were forced to jump into the estuary to avoid being crushed beneath the weight of the ship. None of them is, however, any the worse for her exciting experience, aside from a slight nervous reaction.

HELD BY WRECKAGE.

Carter was held down by part of the wreckage and drowned. He lived at 2021 Twentieth street, Oakland.

The other two narrowly escaped death in the estuary are: Miss Alice Lorez, 5515 East Twentieth street, Oakland; Miss Laura Tyler, Elm street, Oakland; Mrs. M. Sparks, Oakland.

Miss Lorez was badly injured and placed under a doctor's care. Miss Tyler and Mrs. Sparks escaped with a wetting.

Cadets Home for Thanksgiving Holiday

Philip F. Landis, Henry E. Rogers and H. Linwood Stow, three Oakland boys and students of the Hitchcock Military Academy in San Rafael, are spending their Thanksgiving vacation here. A number of affairs have been planned for them. Paper Restrictions Are Partly Lifted

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Restrictions regarding the publication of periodicals, excepting daily, Sunday and weekly newspapers, were withdrawn today by the pulp and paper division of the war industries board. Retentions governing the making and cutting of wall paper were also repealed.

The restrictions on daily newspapers will probably be withdrawn within sixty days, it was explained in the announcement. The present rules governing weekly newspapers will be repealed December 1, as the paper consumed in this way does not materially affect the news print situation.

At the same time about twenty men, working alongside Carter at the stern of the vessel, dived into the estuary to avoid being crushed by the cradle.

SESSUE HAYAKAWA in a strong emotional drama, "The Temple of Dusk," and Olive Tell in "Secret Things," appear in double bill at American Theatre today and remainder of week.

Sessue Hayakawa, the popular Japanese star, surrounded by a cast of superior excellence, is appearing at the American Theatre in "The Temple of Dusk," a splendid drama produced by the famous Nipponese star's own company and proclaimed by many critics as the most marvelous production in which Hayakawa has ever appeared. The play is one of tense situations and highly dramatic moments and depicts in a startling manner the tragedy of selfishness and vividly portrays Japanese boy's devotion to the memory of an American girl whom he loved, and his supreme sacrifice to a sacred trust.

A second feature picture presented on the same program is a strong romantic drama of love, mystery and adventure, "Secret Things," in which the charming Metro star, Olive Tell, assumes the principal role.

An animated news weekly, which depicts in a realistic and interesting manner events of importance which have recently occurred in many parts of the world, is also shown.

The musical features of the program are furnished by the Symphony Orchestra and add very much to the enjoyment of the performance.

This same program will be continued at the American Theatre the remainder of this week, concluding with the Saturday night performances.—Advertisement.

Trust Me! Try Dodson's Liver Tone!

Calomel Harms Liver and Bowels

Read my guarantee! Liven your liver and bowels and get straightened up without taking sickening calomel. Don't lose a day's work!

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant, vegetable fluid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can't salfate. Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.—Advertisement.

Marine Issues See Stimulus Wall-Street Trading Is Brisk

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Marine issues were the outstanding feature of today's professional stock market, their strength affording a striking contrast to the general pressure elsewhere.

Shipments were buoyant at the opening on announcements of the offer of the United States Government to purchase the large tonnage of the Mercantile Marine Company. Marine preferred, common and bonds gained. Other strong features embraced the motors, sugars and leathers, but rails and prominent equipments were irregular.

Publication of more definite details concerning the Mercantile Marine deal caused a further jump of over six points at midday. Gradual rally in the shipping also reacting. The closing was heavy.

Movement of prices at various periods of today's trading is analyzed in detail in the following:

OPENING—The trading in all the Marine issues at the opening was attended by the greatest degree of excitement that has been witnessed on the floor of the Stock Exchange for some time. There was an immense crowd in Marine preferred long before the opening, with many of the brokers having orders to execute at the beginning of the day.

SAYS ANOTHER IS POSING AS HER HUSBAND

The Alaska edition of Rex Beach is rivalled in the claim of the plaintiff in the divorce suit of Mrs. Vera M. Smith against W. L. Smith, now on trial before Judge T. W. Harris.

The claim is made by Mrs. Smith that her former husband, Eli W. Hawkins, who went to Alaska in 1917, two days after she married him in Oakland, died there, and that another man, who assumed his name and identity, is now appearing in court as Hawkins, a witness for the defendant Smith.

When Mrs. Smith sued for a divorce, demanding $500 a month alimony, her husband refused to appear with a suit for an annulment of the marriage, alleging that when the marriage was sought to be dissolved was consummated Mrs. Smith was still the wife of Hawkins.

Mrs. Smith says that she sought Hawkins for eight years after his disappearance, and that all the time his people, named Blankenship, then living at Elmira, told her he was dead. After the eight years had elapsed she married Smith, a wealthy retired banker, who is reputed to own above $100,000 worth of property. She sued for divorce on the ground of cruelty, alleging that he maliciously caused her to be examined for insanity when she was entirely sane.

At the time of his departure for Alaska during the gold rush, Hawkins was worth between $20,000 and $30,000. Mrs. Smith never heard from him. The marriage was celebrated at 1510 Telegraph avenue, in 1917. She was one of the five Barabagelata girls. Three was a wedding feast, during which the bride became ill. The next day Hawkins went away.

Later an order came from Hawkins, from Orel, Alaska, to Laura Blankenship, his cousin, authorizing her to open his safe deposit box and take out the securities, some $25,000 worth. It is admitted that the order was from the real Hawkins, who was an educated man and wrote a business hand.

The man now claiming to be Hawkins is said to declare that he later received the securities and had the money away in a year at Los Angeles.

The plaintiff claims that the present Hawkins is an uneducated man, and that he exhibit a letter in which he spells Orel as "Orcha," and Alaska as "Alaska." The present Hawkins is engaged in Bakersfield as a truck driver, while it is claimed that the real Hawkins was a mining engineer.

A handwriting expert on the stand today denied that letters written admitted the Hawkins alleged to be dead and by the man now claiming to be Hawkins are in the same handwriting. The expert claims that the former are in the free writing of a trained hand, while the latter are clearly the attempt of an untrained hand to imitate.

It is further claimed that the present Hawkins went by the name of "Ed," until the beginning of the present suit, whereas the real Hawkins was always known as Eli W. Smith and her sister and brother deny that the man claiming to be Hawkins is such, while a teacher of the former Hawkins claims that the man now present is the real Hawkins.

GOVERNMENT RECORDS IN SAFES ALLEGED OPENED

Grand Jury Detective Claims He Knows Densmore Stenographer

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Looted safes, desks rifled of documents, telephone lines tapped and other similar conditions have thrown the Federal building into a furor of indignation. With it all there are rumors that the Federal Grand Jury will be called upon to make its own investigation.

One of the disclosures is that a safe containing I. W. W. and Angel Island graft case evidence in the office of U. S. Commissioner Krull was opened. This was revealed with the beginning of the government investigation being made by United States Marshal James B. Holohan and secret service agents in charge of Harry M. Moffitt.

Other prominent government officials are busily examining their private vaults and the locked compartments in their desks, and it is rumored in the Federal corridors that the sacred chambers of the Federal judge, whose name is withheld, had been entered during the absence of his secretary.

Charges were made by Detective Emil Hearn, who is endeavoring to solve the subterfuge on Densmore's assistants, George B. Parsons and Ignatius H. McCarthy, that they are in hiding in McCarthy's home at 170 Seventeenth avenue and will be arrested today for their appearance before the grand jury Friday morning.

Detective Hearn also claimed he had evidence that two of the stenographers who wrote down the record of conversations of District Attorney Charles M. Pickert and others, were indicated employees of the Immigration station at Angel Island, Presley McFarland and Robert Ferguson, and that the third was William Armstrong, a former junior clerk of the station, now attached to Mare Island as a second-class yeoman.

It is expected that McCarthy will be made the subject of a federal grand jury subpoena to ascertain his knowledge of the alleged opening of federal safes.

COUNCIL PLACES BAN ON LICENSES

By a vote of four to one, Mayor Davis today, no, the city council this morning adopted a resolution, introduced by Commissioner of Streets F. F. Jackson, placing that body on record as opposed to granting any further liquor licenses in the city of Oakland between now and July 1, 1919.

The Commissioner Jackson gave as his reason for the move that men securing licenses at this time, who knowing that they have but a few months to operate, will make the business pay all the traffic will bear. Commissioner Edwards demurred at this imputation stating that in his opinion the business men of Oakland were to be trusted to conduct their business in accordance with law.

Commissioner F. F. Morse stated that he was considering the introduction of a resolution along the lines suggested by Commissioner Jackson, but that he was satisfied that it was not the province of the council to adopt such a policy in view of the fact that the Hart ordinance provides for the method of handling liquor traffic in Oakland.

It is further claimed that the present Hawkins went by the name of "Ed," until the beginning of the present suit, whereas the real Hawkins was always known as Eli W. Smith and her sister and brother deny that the man claiming to be Hawkins is such, while a teacher of the former Hawkins claims that the man now present is the real Hawkins.

Stock Fish to Be Offered Oakland

It will be possible for Oaklanders to cultivate a taste for stock fish as the result of the introduction here of an enterprise new to this city, but a thriving and long-known one in Japan. CHILDREN TO RAISE VOICES FOR VISITORS

The French tri-color will wave alongside the Stars and Stripes on the downtown streets of Oakland, and the school children of the city will sing the Marseillaise.

These are two new features of the patriotic welcome to be extended to the French National Orchestra when it comes to Oakland on December 5, according to the announcement today of the Oakland Merchants' Exchange, which has joined with the "Committee of One Hundred," appointed by Mayor John L. Davis to arrange a welcome for the famous French musicians.

At a meeting held last night, the Merchants' Exchange adopted a resolution calling upon every business man in Oakland to decorate their places of business with the French national emblem, and also directed a request to the board of education that a chorus of school children be permitted to sing the famous national anthem in greeting to the eight-six noted players who are touring this country under special arrangements made by the French government.

The orchestra, which is headed by the noted Andre Messager, the most famous musical director in Europe, will play at the Ye Liberty theater a week from tomorrow night. Its appearance in Oakland is under the auspices of a committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

See Football Game, Urges Mayor City Executive Issues Appeal

Mayor John L. Davis today issued the following proclamation urging the people of Oakland to attend the California-Stanford football game at Berkeley field and thus welcome again the renewal of football as a classic sport on the Coast.

The proceeds of the game are to be devoted to the United War Work fund. The proclamation follows: "To the people of Oakland:

"Your support of the game tomorrow will aid in bringing up the war work fund in addition to the enjoyment which you will receive. The two universities are to be congratulated for the noble purpose to which they have dedicated this game and I sincerely hope that the people of the Bay Cities will turn out to this game, which is the greatest athletic event on the Pacific Coast.

"The game will start at 2:30 o'clock and the admission is a flat price of $2.00. With the program in our Auditorium and this football game for those who prefer this entertainment the people of Oakland will have an opportunity to enjoy a great Thanksgiving day."

"I wish to call your attention to the Stanford-California football game tomorrow afternoon on Berkeley field.

"The renewal of the football classic of the Pacific Coast is to be made under the very worthy auspices of the United War Work, which will receive all of the proceeds from the admission charge.

"The thousands of old grads who remember the gridiron struggles will appreciate Thanksgiving Day, will undoubtedly appreciate the renewal of the athletic relationship between the two universities and our people in general will enjoy this game, which is always marked by many stunts springing from college initiative and enthusiasm.

PORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 27.—Billy Sunday, working here "to beat hell," paused long enough today to tell the United Press what he thinks America has to give thanks for this Thanksgiving.

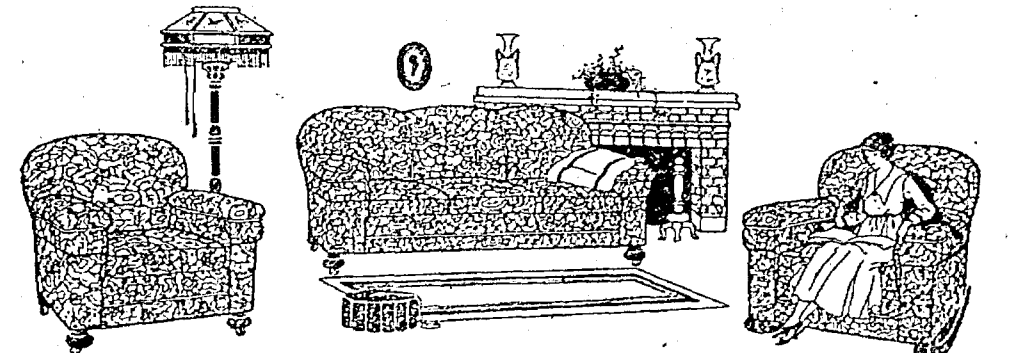

"We are thankful," Sunday said, "that the white-winged dove of peace has at last burst through the storm clouds of war.

"That the Prussian beast and his whelps have been caged and we will check their baggage to St. Helena.
